

CABLE ORDER SENT FOR THE NEW BONDS

FORTHCOMING ISSUE WILL BE AT THE INTEREST RATE OF THREE AND A HALF PER CENT—BONDS TO BE BROUGHT HERE NEXT MONTH AS A RESULT OF A CABLED ORDER BY TREASURER CAMPBELL.

The new territorial bond issue of $750,000 is to be of 3½ per cent bonds, carrying the lowest rate of interest at which Hawaii has ever been able to sell bonds. The results of the last sales and offers received since has shown that the Territory can sell bonds at that figure, and treasurer Campbell has already given the order for them to be printed and brought here.

Campbell has cabled east to have the bonds printed at once and brought here and they will be brought here by Calvert Brewer of the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York who is coming with the bonds which W. G. Irwin recently bought. Acting under Campbell's cable orders Brewer will bring the new bonds as well. They will bear the date of December 1, and will be offered for sale probably in January.

The bonds will probably be sold by public bids, here and on the mainland. Campbell will accept the highest bid, which promises to be better than any other ever received here for bonds. The Hawaiian Trust company has already offered $8, which, for 3½ per cent bonds, is a high offer. It is therefore certain that the sale price will not be below this, and it may be higher. The bonds will not be sold immediately on issuance, but will be offered when the Territory is ready to use the money.

tees, they may pay it out of the balance of the estate's income after Mrs. Parker's $1500 per month has been paid.

The $1500 per month is to cover traveling expenses of the minors, says the answer, and the items of $3,197.15 and $548.80 which Mrs. Parker claims for maintenance and traveling expenses, over to above the $1500 monthly family allowance, cannot be paid except out of the allowance.

The shares of the estate provided for the children are contingent upon marriage or the attainment of a majority. It is claimed and Mrs. Alice K. Macfarlane is entitled now to a share of the income of the estate.

Martin Egan Is Married

THE ABLE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN TOKIO HAS BECOME A BENEDICT.

Martin Egan, who has represented the Associated Press in Tokio so ably throughout the war, is a benedict. The announcement will come as a surprise to his many friends in Honolulu. He is well known among the newspaper men here, several of them having worked with him in San Francisco and elsewhere. He has passed through Honolulu a number of times and has made quite an extensive acquaintance among Island people.

The announcement of his marriage is thus given by the Japan Daily Advertiser:

Following closely upon the news of their engagement came the simple word yesterday that Miss Eleanor Franklin and Martin Egan "had the honor to announce their marriage," which was solemnized in Yokohama on July 19. With the true newspaper man's judgment of the value of a "story," Mr. Egan had allowed the news to "get cold" before the scriveners of the local press could embarrass him with fulsome and stereotyped "glad hand" notices.

The bride of the well known Japan representative of the Associated Press is like her husband a player in the game of journalism who has won a goodly share of points. She came to Japan early in the present year as a special writer for Leslie's Weekly of New York and from Tokyo sent a series of live, snappy articles to her paper upon some of the little known phases of the war as seen in the capital of one of the belligerents. A recent interview she obtained from Count Katsura, the Premier, was copied from her paper by the press all over America and given the prominence due a good news story.

Mr. Egan's position in the field of journalism is well known. Since he came to Tokyo to assume from there the direction of all the war news for

POLICE WANT A CHE FA EXPERT

PECULIAR CONDITION IN THE MATTER OF PROSECUTIONS OF CHE FA GAMBLERS.

Quite an odd condition in the matter of gambling by means of che fa exists in the district court. An expert is wanted by the authorities and it is understood that this matter is to be brought to the attention of the board of supervisors at the meeting tonight.

Che fa is a game which is conducted as a lottery and in order to prove that it is such, the testimony of some witness thoroughly conversant with the game is required. Judge Whitney has ruled that no police officers will be permitted to testify as experts and that the prosecution will have to secure some other expert. W. Crawford has been testifying as an expert but he refuses now to do so unless paid a fee. There is no appropriation on hand for such expenses so a standstill in the matter of the che fa cases has resulted. The prosecution is unable to proceed against the numerous defendants and matters are hanging fire. It is possible that some relief will be secured from the board of supervisors.

SUPREME COURT SITS.

Chief Justice Frear called the Supreme Court this morning and adjourned to tomorrow, when it is expected that there will be decisions in the Kauai mandamus cases affecting the right of Supervisor Kanehili to sit. Frear set the restraining order and the motion to dissolve the same, in the case of Koolau Malle et al vs. J. O. Carter et al, for hearing tomorrow.

The Associated Press has work has brought him under the eye of the entire diplomatic corps of the capital and won him the trust and esteem of the government. Before assuming control at Tokyo he made a record as a correspondent in the Philippines.

Anticipating the close of the war, the Associated Press has notified Mr. Egan of his forthcoming transference to London, where he will assume the prominent post of representative for his agency there. The date of the departure of Mr. Egan and his bride from Tokyo has not yet been set.

HENRY MAY DECLINE TO TAKE HAWAII PRISONERS

HAWAII COUNTY SUPERVISORS, PENDING ADVICE BY DEPUTY COUNTY ATTORNEY N. W. ALULI HOLD UP THE BILLS FOR MAINTENANCE OF PRISONERS—BOY SENTENCED TO REFORM SCHOOL CANNOT GET TRANSPORTATION.

Hawaii County is apparently going up against very serious trouble in the imprisonment of offenders against the law. The Inter-Island Steamship Company is stated in a letter from the Hilo jailer to have refused credit for steamship passage in one case where the confinement is to be in Honolulu, and owing to the holding up of his bills for expenses of maintaining County prisoners High Sheriff Henry is threatening to order his jailers not to receive any more prisoners from the County officers. The case in which transportation was refused is that of a boy sentenced to the Reform school. Jailer Maby of Hilo has written to Henry stating that the

QUEEN STREET RAILS CAUSING TROUBLE

PROPERTY OWNERS PETITION TO HAVE THEM REMOVED BUT THE RAPID TRANSIT PEOPLE REFUSE—AN INTERESTING CONTROVERSY WHICH HAS ARISEN OVER THE WATER FRONT IMPROVEMENTS—SUPERVISOR LUCES TO THE RESCUE.

And now the center of war has shifted rapidly from Manchuria, through the Caucasus to Queen street, Honolulu! Things have been doing down on Queen street under the eagle eye of Supervisor Jack Lucas for the place presents an appearance even now which it is true, made one attempt to start a scenic line along the waterfront, but citizen who has occasional business nobody seemed to want to ride that down on the water front. How much better it will look when the water front plaza, with its fringe of handsome coconut palms, has been completed can easily be imagined.

But the signs of trouble are in the air and when three heavy blasts were fired off by men taking out coral rock where the mauka sidewalk is to be, even the hack drivers sought cover. When a hack driver ducks, it may be remarked, it is time for the average

IRWIN WILL FIGHT

Attorney General Andrews has prepared a draft of the proposed agreement of property owners in the Waikiki seawall cases. It is understood that W. G. Irwin is to fight the proposition of a right of way past his place on the beach side, and there will probably be quite a legal controversy over the proposition.
